

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Valley Spring Lodge, No. 104, K. of P.

Saturday, April 30th, at Waterford

One of the pleasantest gatherings that has been held in Waterford for a long time was the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Valley Spring Lodge, No. 104, K. of P., at their hall, Saturday evening, April 30th.

A special check the Knights, the members of Valley Oak Temple, and several other lodges, gathered around the table and full justice to the delicious

Commander Albert Hamilton, the toastmaster, called first, upon W. K. Hamilton, who, in his usual happy manner, extended a welcome to all present. He was next called upon by the lodge and responded with a few words of welcome, and a story, and then written for the occasion by M. J. Stone. The toastmaster then turned to several of the members of the lodge, who spoke of their being present, and some of the Knights referred to amusing incidents connected with the institution of the lodge.

Willard Goodwin contributed a number to the program. He gave a difficult piece of music, called "The Shoemakers' Song," which brought down the house; and then he read a poem about "Old John Brown," which he said he learned at the very early age of five.

The hearty applause which greeted the last chapter members left, were present: W. K. Hamilton, L. R. Rounds, Frank B. Rounds, Herman Hill, H. H. Blake, came from Bridgton to the anniversary and brought with them a large number of friends.

Waterford, came from the city to the anniversary and brought with them a large number of friends. The guests gathered in the hall, where cards were exchanged, and the following poem was read at the anniversary:

The Jackson Letter

625 5th St. N. St. Petersburg, Fla., April 24, 1927. Dear Friends: I've been so busy with beach parties and picnics and sewing for Easter and doing hand painted silk scarfs and handkerchiefs for gifts for graduation and so on that I have hardly had time to write. Oh, yes, and making Indian costumes for the big Indian Pow Wow and Pageant at the West Front Park, this week. But for all the busy days, we miss our "Daddy" when night time falls and are counting the weeks when we shall be joining him at Green Elms, and greeting old friends. The Madras have arrived. I note by the Sun and the Bridges are at Tripp Lake by now. I am sure for they left at about the same time. I am wondering if the Charles Dumas have left Verdun. Orla Jones called to say good-bye last week, too, on his way to see his sister, Frances, at Tennessee. The Clark family soon now, back to Bolster's Mills. I note it is still more beautiful than the winter here. Everything has put on its green growth and blossomed to the full. One cannot conceive of the beauty in the middle blossoming of the South until they have had the privilege of seeing it with their own eyes. It is only matched in glory with our autumn coloring of the foliage, but yet so incomparably different. Now I have promised to tell you of the Pageant of States for March 22nd at St. Petersburg. It began on Monday, March 22nd, with the elimination contests of all the states at Mirror Lake, Pasadena, California, and by the way, I have never written you of the wonderful contest through that sub-division. It is conducted by a man of great wealth, and the stationary jetties from all over the world adorn the parks and drives, which are symmetrically laid out on land and sea. I should say, one of the finest golf courses in the country lies there. The sports which included, shuffle-board, roque, lawn bowling, horseshoe pitching, checkers, dominoes, chess, tennis, archery, and table and 500 at the card clubs. Tuesday was President's Union Day, when the presidents of all the State Societies, past and present, held forth with an annual honor banquet. On this day too, there was a gorgeous Flower Show at the Art Club, free to the public, continuing through Wednesday as well. At noon, on this day, was the public presentation of the Pageant of States to the Mayor, to the President of the Union of all the State Societies, as a symbol that the city was theirs for the week. At 1:30 came the big torch parade, closing with a drill in their high colored Turkish regalia of red and green, and circus stunts and horrid take-offs. In the evening were the several lanterns of the Masons and Elks and their big ball at the Coliseum. Thursday was Queen's Coronation Day, with a regal spectacle at Williams Park, at 11 A. M. The stage of the Band Shell had been enlarged and a scene set of a garden before a castle, many colored balloons floating in air were fastened to the roof and one was impressed with the idea of great splendor in this appointment as two heralds entered followed by Queen Florida, walking between Columbia and Utah. Sun, for Florida is giving a party to her daughter, Miss St. Petersburg, who is otherwise called Sunshine. All the queens of every state in the Union, as well as one from Canada and Alaska, have been invited. These have been chosen by the different societies and robes to best represent their own state. A band of trumpets and Miss Sunshine enters with her pages. She is crowned all in gold tinsel, with a sunburst on the same for her crown and as the rays of the real sun fell upon her she shone radiant in her girlish beauty, as she greets the Sun and Columbia and enters to her mother, Florida, who is dressed in voluminous skirts embroidered with orange blossoms and fruit. Another band of trumpets and to the strains of "Dixie" Queen Alabama, dressed as a cotton blossom, with her attendants, iron ore, coal, steel and limestone, demure maidens all, enter and are presented at the court. Then in turn come California, queen of the Silver Screen or Movies, with her director and camera-man, while the orchestra plays "California, Here I Come!" then, Maple Leaf Dance in queenly white robe, the lining of which was the Canadian flag held aloft a wee star and stripes. Her attendants were dressed as Sports, Grain, Fisheries, and Education.

Two came Colorado as queen of minerals all in shining coppery bronze with her attendants, silver, gold, bronze and steel. The orchestra very appreciatively playing, "Silver threads among the Gold." Delaware to "Stars and Stripes Forever" was America's Defence, a giant torpedo with four cannon crackers strutting across the stage. "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" announced the Goddess of Liberty followed by a scribe of the Legislature, Justice, a Senator, and Congressmen. Georgia, the strains of "Love's Wedding March" came as a Peach Blossom Bride, very lovely indeed, with the novel attendants dressed as a peach nut, a cotton flower and one like the tale of Watermelon and Peanut.

Idaho was ushered in with Indian tom-toms, Sacajewa the Indian maid who led Lewis and Clark, the first white men to cross the Rocky Mountains. The queen of the Golden Corn Fields with her attendants, Horticulture, Music, and Art.

"On the Banks of the Wabash" heralded Indiana as "Love's Wombhood" with James Whitcomb Riley's "Little Orphan Annie, College Girl, Old Aunt Mary, and Sweetheart of Mine." Iowa Corn Song brought the queen of the golden west, with wheat attendants. "Mr. Old Ken-tucky Home" ushered in Van Dyke Ken-tucky Cardinal, all in feathery tailcoat of that state to represent the bird himself with four tiny little ones, next very sight, "Louisiana Lowlands Low" was the state of Southern Belles; "Maryland My Maryland" was a dainty queen of Chesapeake Bay in a burgundy shell that opened and disclosed a very dainty white Pearl, her attendants were diminutive Lord and Lady Baltimore. Maine with the jangling of bells and the "Shagging Song" was Queen Winter with her Pine Tree State Sports. Rossini's "Statue of Liberty" brought Massachusetts the Goddess of Education, with Music, Art, Science and Literature. "Michigan, My Michigan" was queen of copper with tiny copper pennies; Minnesota was Queen of the Lakes, followed by her four Seasons while the "Boating Song" was played. "Missouri Waltz" was queen of the Wild Rose Land, with her flower garlands. "America the Beautiful" and Miss New England with her four Seasons were presented; The "April Chorus" brought New Hampshire, a stately Granite monument with four stone cutters; New Jersey and her four Bathing Beauties triumphed in to "Good Old Summer Time"; Mexican music announced the Queen of Navajo Country with her troubadours, for New Mexico; "Side-saddle of N. Y." brought the Queen of the Empire state in her regal beauty with her pages; "Carolina, Carolina," showed North Carolina in overalls, toweling factories, cigarettes and good schools; "Beautiful Ohio" was queen of the Crim-son Carnation with her flower maidens; Oklahoma was "My Wild Irish Rose" with Pennsylvania played "There's a Quaker in Town" and represented Prosperity with Commerce, Mining, Manufacturing, Rhode Island was very unique, being a huge R. I. Red Hen strutting in with four yellow chicks, as the orchestra played "Chick, Chick, Chick."

Texas was wonderful all in blue with a diadem of a huge Lone Star of Silver, and four little Blue Bonnets, attending her. She won second prize! Tennessee was queen of the volunteer-State-dressed all in white, as the Peace and as she came forth to the front she let loose a pure white dove from her hands. Her attendants were the World War, Spanish War, Civil War and Revolutionary War. She won first prize and was chosen queen. All the states for the next year. Vermont was the Green Mountain State and "Back to Our Mountains" from "I Trouvatore" was played. "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia" was the Queen Mother of the Nation, a black mammy was her attendant with the first white child born in the U. S. "Farmer in the Dell" brought Queen of Dairy Maids, the Ohio Condensed Milk, and a Cheese. Last of all came Alaska, the genuine Eskimo queen and dog sled in furs with a shower of snow powder over the roof. The coronation followed and then singing and dancing until noon, and songs in costume by the baritone, Harold Russell. In the afternoon were concerts at the Pier and in the Park, water sports and boat races in the Bay, and spectacular fire-works at the water front, with dancing in the new Casino just dedicated on the $1,000,000 Pier Roof. Friday was the All States Day with a wonderful parade of floats of all the states, and cities, and commercial divisions. Kentucky won, a burst of cardinal was her float with the cardinal queen driving carved and painted most realistically, two huge Kentucky Cardinals, so beautifully described by Van Dyke in his book of that name! It deserved the prize and that is saying a great deal for there were the most wonderful and gorgeously gotten up floats ever driven over any avenue in this vast universe! 300,000 people gathered along the route to witness the event. Michigan won 2nd, a living pillar of copper was the spirit of the float in a complete mining camp, with shaft, concentrator, the peacock win of the slope to the railroad open tops ready for shipment and even the miners' children playing about. Third honors fell to Rhode Island for the float was a huge R. I. Red Rooster, crowing all along the route and seated on his back was the queen Hen and her four yellow chicks. Maine, for honorable mention, was a pure white snow sleigh with the queen and her attendants out for an airing. The radiant summer, the green of the trees, the gay flowers along its way, the brilliancy of the pennants, and flags with every inch of the crowds along every inch of the mile and a half of the parade was a fitting setting for the sisterhood of the nation's moving glory! Music, martial and otherwise filled the ranks, the Legion Band in its orange uniforms, the Royal Scotch Highlanders in their kilts with "Wee" Jamie Clark, a brave Scotsman playing the bagpipes between the selections, and Harold Russell in his high cockade, beloved by all for his winning songs; then came the great Miami of the Sunshine City Band; Drum and Bugle Corps; the orchestra of the Palais Royal; the band of the float; the snow white uniforms of the Sunshine City Band; the Coliseum orchestra playing music never heard in the original at home. The strains of the 116 Field Artillery Band of Winter Haven, the Bradenton Municipal Band with the strains that float from old Manatee over Tampa Bay; the N. C. A. Band each in its place among the other floats. Massachusetts with the golden wheel of Industry! New Jersey with the Bathing girls of Atlantic City; Miss Sunshine in the City Chamber of Commerce float; Illinois with the Sweetheart of the Corn, right in the waving corn field; Vermont with her real cow, contentedly chewing her cud as genuine Green Mountain milk was drawn from her udder; Missouri with her brace of mules and her "show me" family of little tots; South Carolina flashing her textiles; Texas with her Lone Star Queen; Old Noah Webster, himself on the New Hampshire float; the Rose Park School came singing as the 48 states themselves; The Three Quarter Century Club was in the shape of the Old Woman's Shoe and no one under 80 rode within it under the sign "Watch us grow!" The West Central School was a golden basket of living flowers for their sweet faces peeped forth among the petals. A solid mile of beauty and originality that can not be described by pen! Again that evening large set pieces were set off amid rockets and pinwheels at the water front, with music everywhere. Saturday was the "Kiddies' Day" and a parade that had fair to outdo that of the day before was in progress. Tiny tots rode in state in flowery bonnets or crumpled "Queen Dolly" in gayly decked carriages; even a striking red "Devil" rode a bicycle with this placard on his back, "Billy Sunday drove me out of Tampa." Our little baby down stairs rode in state in a golden chariot decked with pink hibiscus flowers with a parasol over her head trimmed with the same flowers and streamers of white ribbons. Her steed was her faithful dog "Rex" with a white blanket trimmed with the same flowers and his harness wound with white. Eva painted the sign "Hibiscus Queen" as a finishing touch to our morning's work and many were the Oh's and Ah's and "Isn't she dear!" There were hundreds of children in the parade and it was truly as original and beautiful as that of the day before. Indeed a fitting ending for a week of festivities.

And now the Bridge parties for charitable help and the Beach parties and Farewell Parties all the days and evenings, as we say goodbye to our friends, one by one. June 2nd is Graduation of Eva's class, 9th Grade Junior High, already they have had their meeting and chosen their flowers and dresses and rehearsed their songs. Next winter they go into the new $1,000,000 High at West Central, a beautiful building with every equipment even to a theatre of its own for their dramas. The surroundings are houses of the best in the city and it is to be found hope to be located in one of them another year.

Last Friday night we were invited to go with one of the Boy Scout Leaders and his wife, for we Tennessee people, to take in the Indian Pow Wow in the Coliseum at Davis' Islands at Tampa. It was inspiring and instructive to see the different customs of the Ojibway and Seminole Indians. Hotin, the Indian Chief is leading the Pow Wow here of the Boy Scouts in St. Pete assisted by the boys and girls of the Junior High and the "Eva" is to be in it. We enjoyed the wonderful drive about the Davis Islands which are entirely made of sand pumped up out of the ocean there and walled in and built upon and set out to palms and gardens of flowers and shrubs. Showy buildings both residences and hotels and gift shops are there. You may remember the disappearance of Davis from the ship he was crossing the ocean in, and the sub-division remains unfinished as yet though gloriously begun.

Well good friends I will try and write once or twice more to you 'ere we leave to join Mr. Jackson at Green Elms and I hope to plan somehow that we may not have to be separated for so much of another school year. Kind regards to you all, sincerely, Eva Bradlee Jackson.

Keep Eliminative System Active
Good Health Requires Good Elimination
One can't feel well when there is a retention of poisonous waste in the blood. This is called a toxic condition, and is apt to make one tired, dull and languid. Other symptoms are sometimes toxic headaches and dizziness. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions. Many people have learned the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, when the kidneys seem functionally inactive. Every where one finds enthusiastic Doan's users. Ask your neighbor!

PETER AND THE RISEN LORD

LESSON TEXT—John 20:1-10; 21:1-19.

GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to His abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Forgives Peter.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Forgives and Restores Peter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Risen Lord Appears to Peter.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Fellowship With the Risen Lord.

1. Peter and John at the Empty Tomb (John 20:1-10).

John does not enter into a description of the resurrection of Christ or attempt a proof other than that the tomb was empty and that Jesus had repeatedly manifested Himself to the disciples after the tomb had been found empty.

1. How they came to know (vv. 1, 2).

The information was brought by Mary Magdalene out of whom Jesus had cast seven demons (Mark 16:9, Luke 8:2). Prompted by love for Him she went early to the tomb, "while it was yet dark," and was last at the cross and first at the grave, she stayed longer there and was soonest here. Her love for Jesus was genuine, though her knowledge of His resurrection was defective. She could not rest till she had done her utmost for Him because she realized that great good had come to her from His hands. The reason was not that she was a Jewess, but that she had such a dim sense of His saving grace.

2. Their investigation (vv. 3-10).

The news of the empty tomb, which Mary brought with breathless haste, so moved John and Peter that they both ran to investigate. Upon arrival at the tomb John gazed upon it, but Peter entered it, John, with holy reverence, hesitates. Peter, with impulsiveness, enters the tomb at once. Their respective actions are not to be explained on the basis of degrees of love for the Lord, but to temperament. The investigation convinced them. The removal of the stone from the sepulcher, the arrangement of the graveclothes all convinced them that it had not been done by an enemy.

II. The Charge of the Risen Lord to Peter (John 21:15-17).

Jesus put to Peter the thrice repeated question, "Lovest thou me?" Then He gave him a commission. This shows that supreme love to Christ is the one essential qualification for serving Him. Love is the spring from which all Christian activity flows. He asked, also, to show that there are three classes in the church which demand care and attention. These three classes need special care and food.

1. Feed my lambs (v. 15).

This first charge relates to those who are beginning the Christian life—the babes in Christ. The word "feed" means more than instruction. It means in addition to instruction that proper surroundings, influences and examples should be provided. As a Christian minister, Peter was to be an example, provide the proper surroundings and do the proper teaching for the young Christians, those just beginning the Christian life.

2. Tend my sheep (v. 16).

This charge shows a different class. It means to shepherd the sheep. It has application to the mature class of Christians. The duty enjoined therefore is to care for those who have passed out of their childhood into maturity. He must feed the sheep, give them proper instruction, guide them, lead them and discipline them. For this ministry the essential qualification is love.

3. Feed my sheep (v. 17).

The implication here is that Peter was charged with the responsibility of caring for aged Christians. The word "feed" is much the same as in the first case. It means that for the aged Christians the instruction ought to be such as will be suited to their needs. This needs special emphasis today because much attention is given to the young people, but in many instances the old people are neglected.

III. Follow Me (vv. 18-19).

In verse 18 is given a clear prophecy concerning Peter's death. It was to be by crucifixion. Peter once shrank from the cross, but now the Lord holds it up before him. It is not the Lord's death on the cross, but Peter's own. He teaches here that the Christian's death is for the glory of God. Whatever may be before us, even the cruel cross, the Lord's command is to follow Him.

Our Hope

Our hope lies not in the absence of danger, but in the presence of Christ, who is able to control the storm. No church with Christ in it can be wrecked or lost. More of the living Christ, more of His love, of His teaching—Western Recorder.

Costs Self-Denial

To keep in good grace with one's own self often costs self-denial, but it pays a mighty dividend—Herald of Gospel Liberty.

The information was brought by Mary Magdalene out of whom Jesus had cast seven demons (Mark 16:9, Luke 8:2). Prompted by love for Him she went early to the tomb, "while it was yet dark," and was last at the cross and first at the grave, she stayed longer there and was soonest here. Her love for Jesus was genuine, though her knowledge of His resurrection was defective. She could not rest till she had done her utmost for Him because she realized that great good had come to her from His hands. The reason was not that she was a Jewess, but that she had such a dim sense of His saving grace.

2. Their investigation (vv. 3-10).

The news of the empty tomb, which Mary brought with breathless haste, so moved John and Peter that they both ran to investigate. Upon arrival at the tomb John gazed upon it, but Peter entered it, John, with holy reverence, hesitates. Peter, with impulsiveness, enters the tomb at once. Their respective actions are not to be explained on the basis of degrees of love for the Lord, but to temperament. The investigation convinced them. The removal of the stone from the sepulcher, the arrangement of the graveclothes all convinced them that it had not been done by an enemy.

II. The Charge of the Risen Lord to Peter (John 21:15-17).

Jesus put to Peter the thrice repeated question, "Lovest thou me?" Then He gave him a commission. This shows that supreme love to Christ is the one essential qualification for serving Him. Love is the spring from which all Christian activity flows. He asked, also, to show that there are three classes in the church which demand care and attention. These three classes need special care and food.

1. Feed my lambs (v. 15).

This first charge relates to those who are beginning the Christian life—the babes in Christ. The word "feed" means more than instruction. It means in addition to instruction that proper surroundings, influences and examples should be provided. As a Christian minister, Peter was to be an example, provide the proper surroundings and do the proper teaching for the young Christians, those just beginning the Christian life.

2. Tend my sheep (v. 16).

This charge shows a different class. It means to shepherd the sheep. It has application to the mature class of Christians. The duty enjoined therefore is to care for those who have passed out of their childhood into maturity. He must feed the sheep, give them proper instruction, guide them, lead them and discipline them. For this ministry the essential qualification is love.

3. Feed my sheep (v. 17).

The implication here is that Peter was charged with the responsibility of caring for aged Christians. The word "feed" is much the same as in the first case. It means that for the aged Christians the instruction ought to be such as will be suited to their needs. This needs special emphasis today because much attention is given to the young people, but in many instances the old people are neglected.

III. Follow Me (vv. 18-19).

In verse 18 is given a clear prophecy concerning Peter's death. It was to be by crucifixion. Peter once shrank from the cross, but now the Lord holds it up before him. It is not the Lord's death on the cross, but Peter's own. He teaches here that the Christian's death is for the glory of God. Whatever may be before us, even the cruel cross, the Lord's command is to follow Him.

Our Hope

Our hope lies not in the absence of danger, but in the presence of Christ, who is able to control the storm. No church with Christ in it can be wrecked or lost. More of the living Christ, more of His love, of His teaching—Western Recorder.

Costs Self-Denial

To keep in good grace with one's own self often costs self-denial, but it pays a mighty dividend—Herald of Gospel Liberty.
